

TOPSY TURVY MUM

TOPSY TURVY MUM

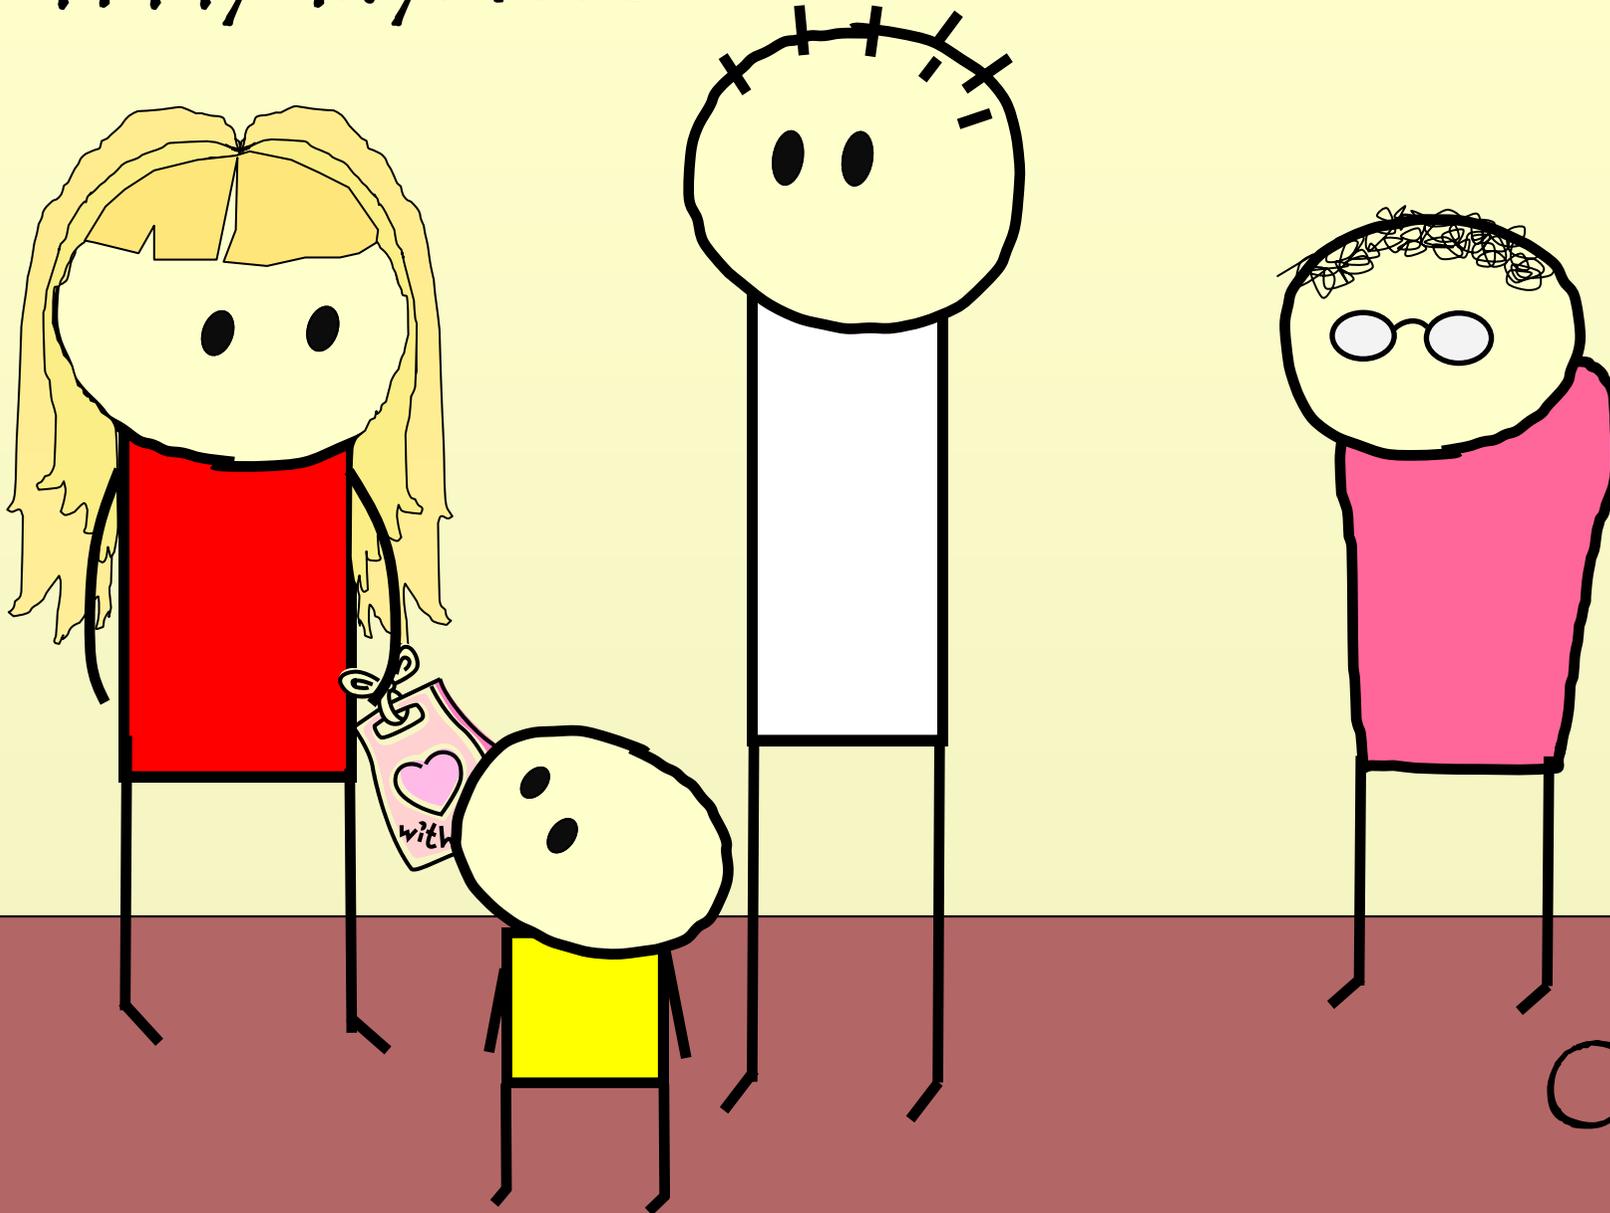

A SOURCE OF SUPPORT TO HELP CHILDREN
UNDERSTAND THE DIFFICULTIES OF LIVING WITH PSYCHOSIS

A STORY ABOUT PSYCHOSIS

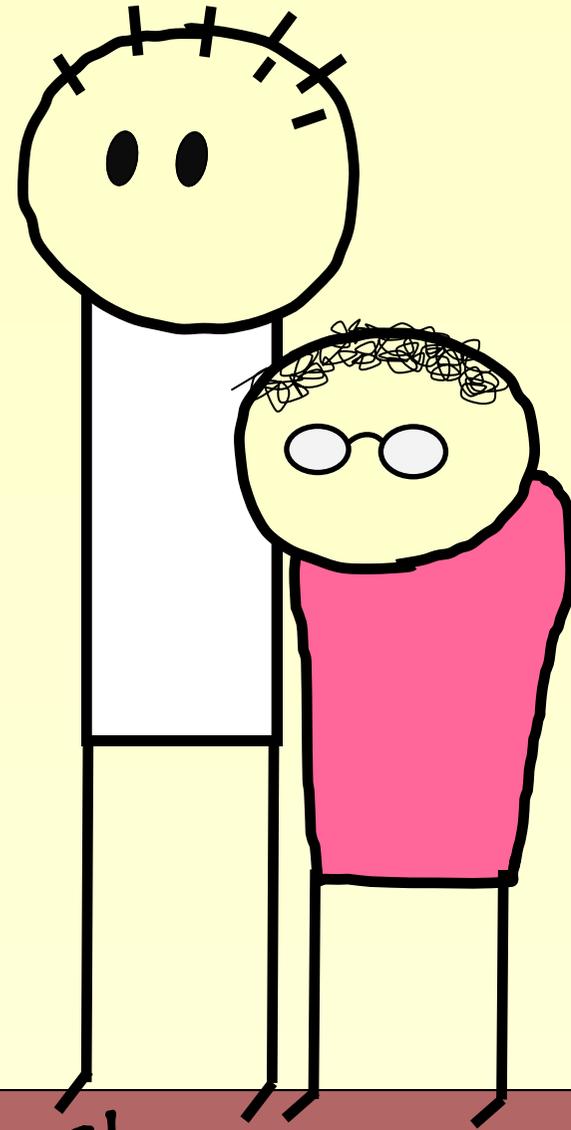

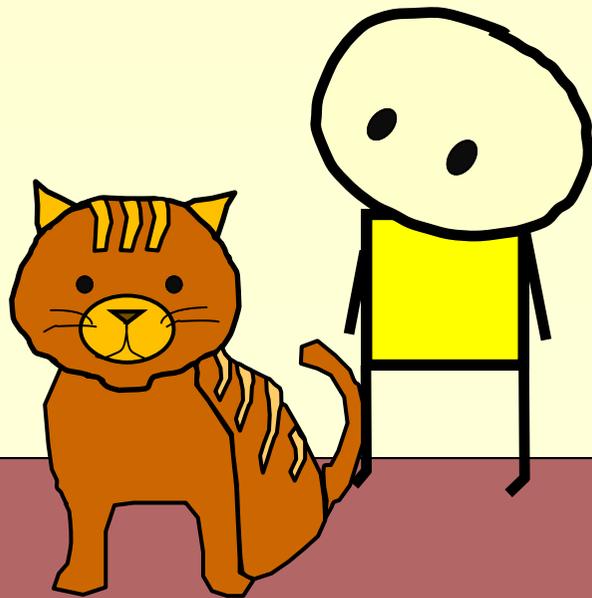

BY EMILY PEARSON

Mummy doesn't trust
daddy anymore

Or Nan

She doesn't even trust
Fluffy..

She says

we're going to hurt her

She trusts her friends
though..

I think it's because they belong to her.

So we can't talk to them

But when we go outside,
it swaps, and people

don't trust
mummy

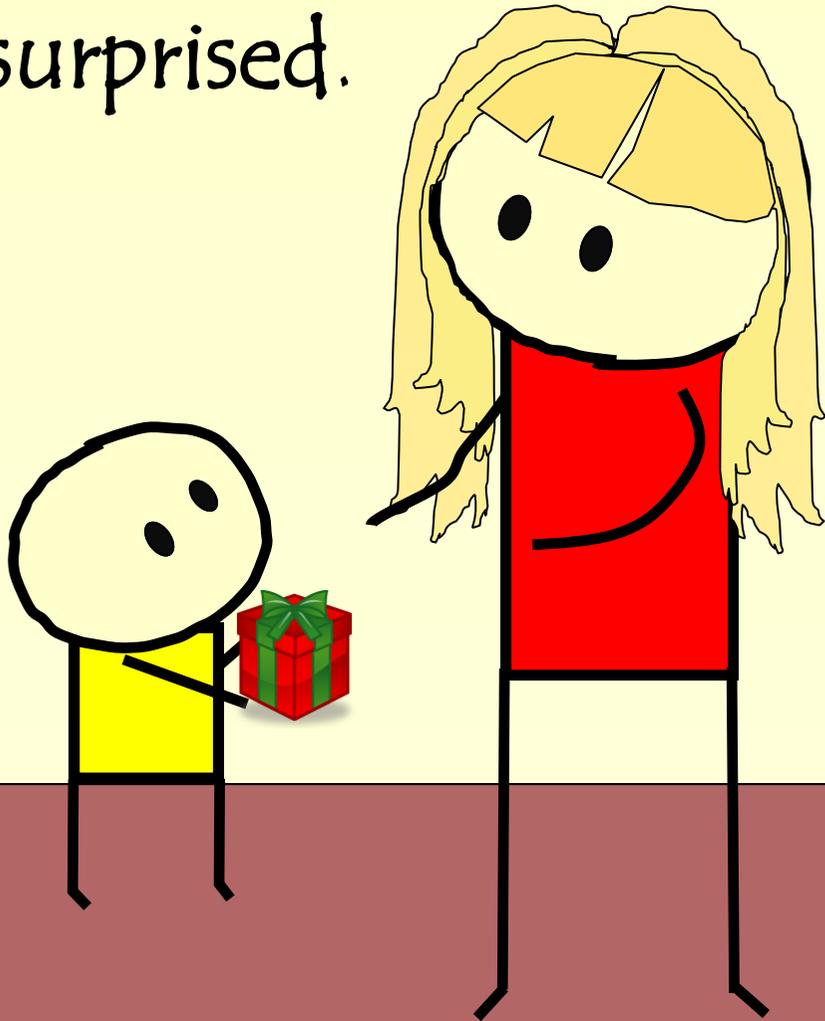

she acts
strangely.

But she wouldn't be naughty.

When I bring her gifts..
She isn't ever excited or surprised.

But I think she likes
them...

She always
keeps them

She doesn't want
to play anymore

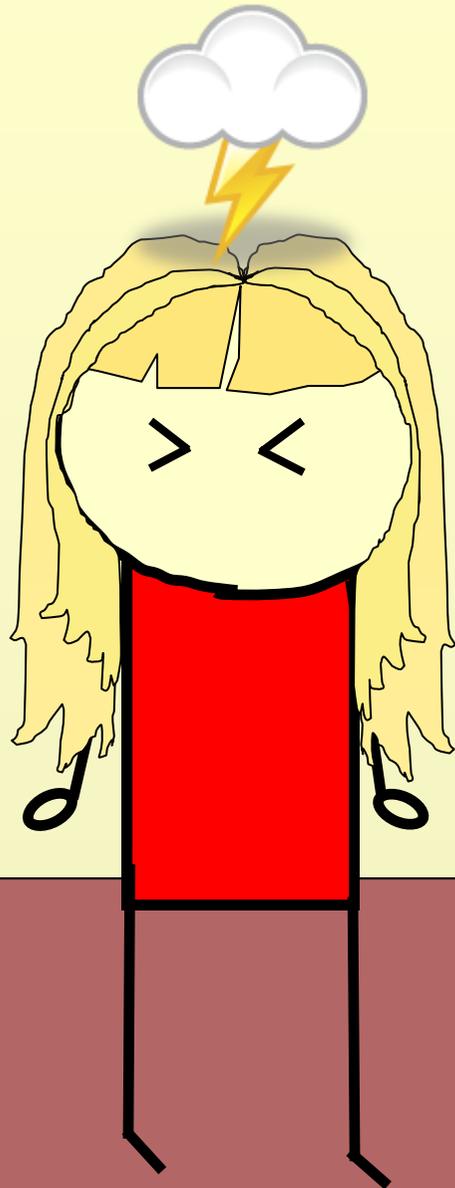

Or go outside..

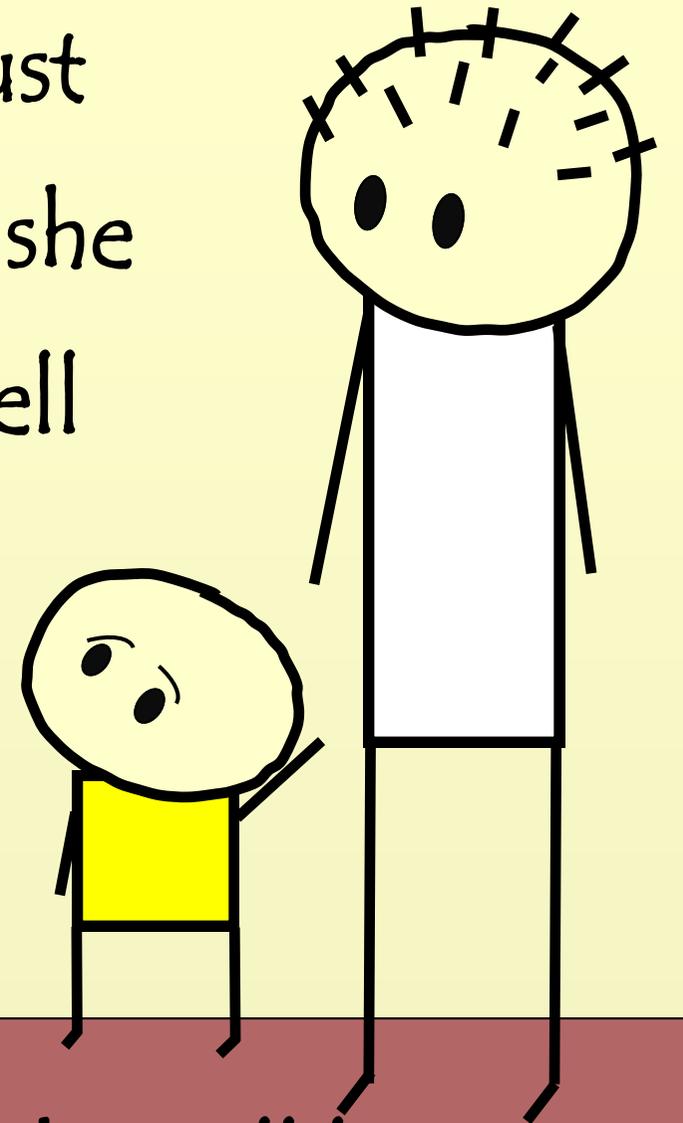

...Or get up

She likes to sleep

And
sometimes
she's
moody

But daddy reminds me its just because she
is not well

She still loves me

Daddy does most of
the housework..
I help too

Mummy does it
sometimes, but
doesn't finish it...

She doesn't
mean to,
she

just
forgets

Like she forgot how much she enjoys the piano.

She used to teach my brother

But she never plays
anymore

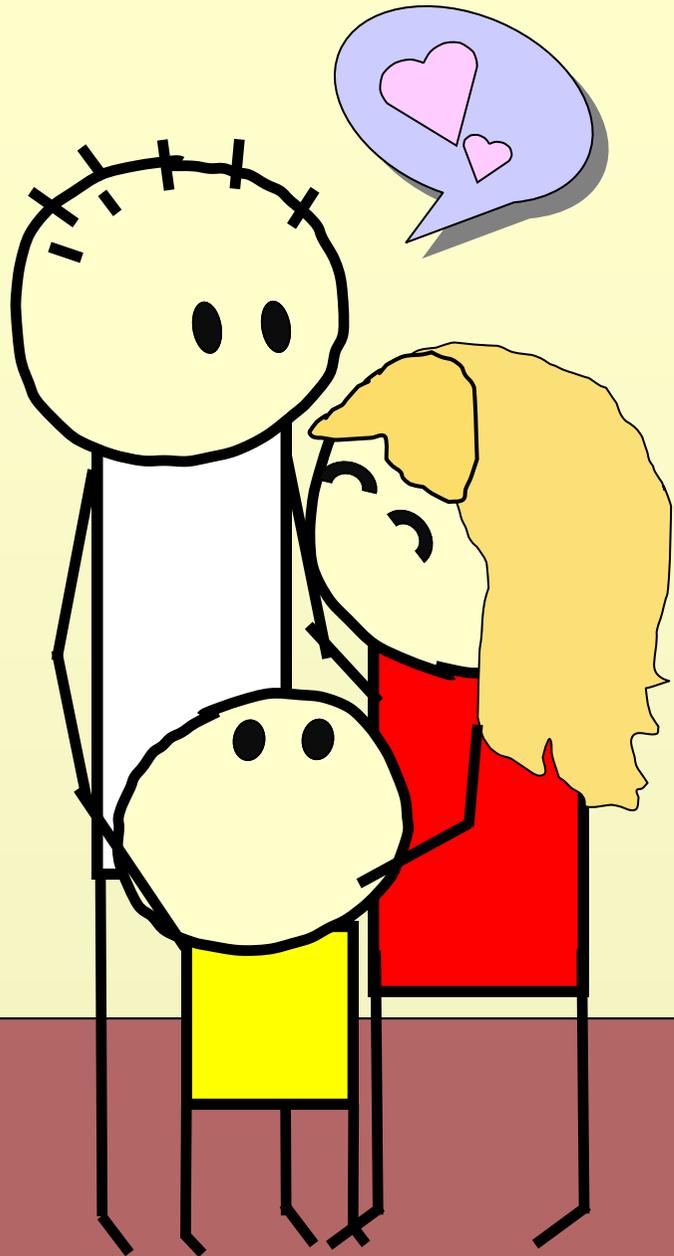

Daddy says she loves us

Even when she's abit
scary or doesn't come
downstairs

She still loves us

Just like we love her.